

FUTURE OF MUSIC

INITIAL IDEAS

For this challenge, we would like you to tackle a problem (or problems!) within the music industry using technology, design and engineering. You might consider the effects COVID-19 is having on the industry right now, or look into new ways to connect bands to fans, or help new bands be discovered! Perhaps you have frustrations with apps or equipment for listening to or recording music? Or you might invent something to revolutionise sound and lighting design for gigs or you might have ideas for the ultimate virtual festival! The Future of Music is in your hands...
